Dear Friends:
The privilege of
working with East
High students is always a real challenge and
a genuine pleasure.
Your fine qualities are chiefly in your courtesy, cooperativeness, superior abilities, and
individual and group
accomplishments.
This book reflects
and records your cooperative activities.
May you always cherish it for the memories it provides.
Most cordially,
Walter L. Cooper

Two Chess Club members ponder over the next move.

Looking over copies of their magazine, "Fanzine", are four members of the new Science Fiction Club.

These Latin Club members are all decked out in togas for their annual banquet.

A photograph display in the health room has caught the eye of many Camera Club members.

We Enjoyed

1. Milton Lavin, Larry Nolon, and Galen Phillips are busy investigating the principle of the lever in Physics class.
2. Keeping briefed on current affairs in their American History class are Ruann Van Zant, Carolyn Meyer, Jim Sanders, and Delbert Nelson.
3. Keeping the librarian busy, these East High students check in and out books of all types.
4. Mike Culbert, Carol Ferguson, Albert Briggs, and Ann Lasater seem fascinated by "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," which they are reading in English class.
5. Use of the dictaphone provides Secretarial Training students, Edna Kirby, Joy La Pointe, Barbara Agee, Joy Cain, and Dorothy Hearsh with practical business help.

Our Classes

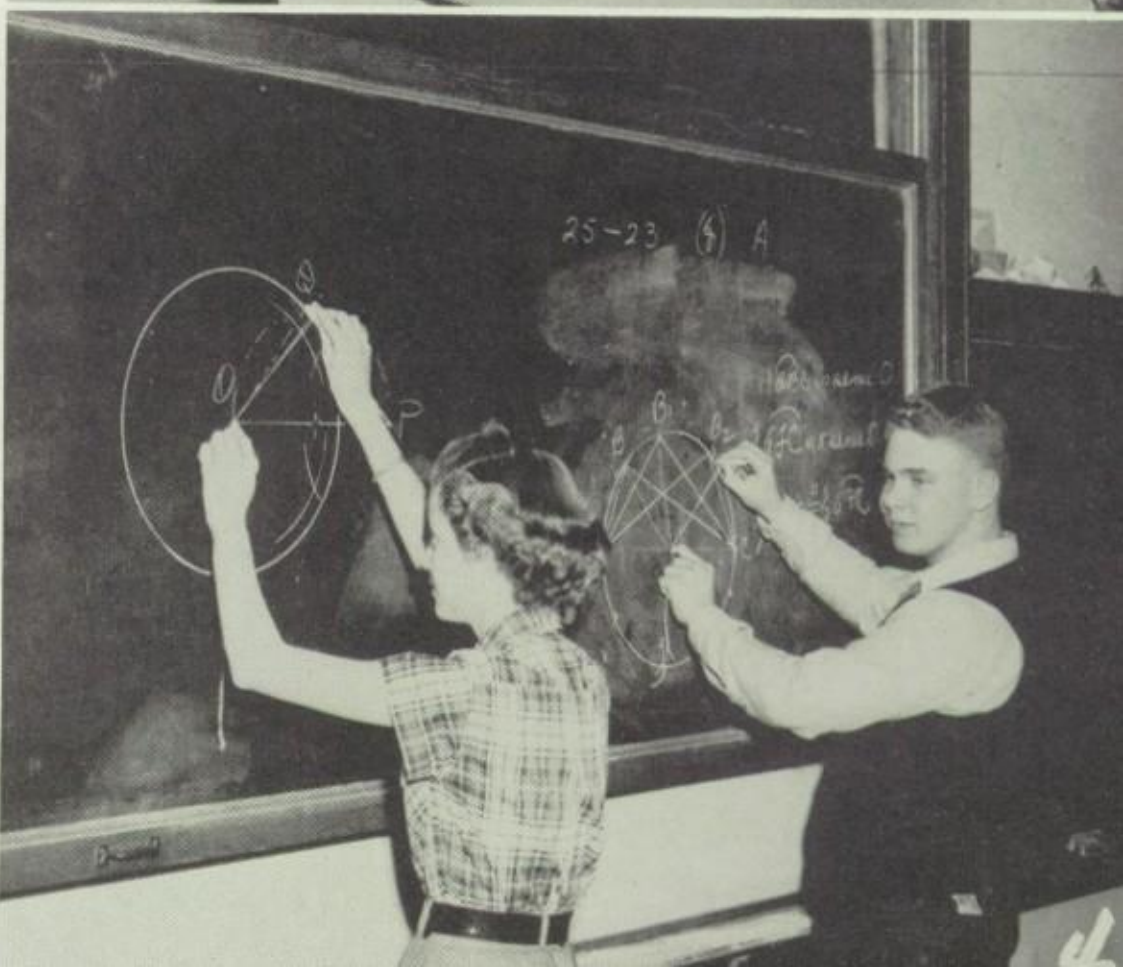

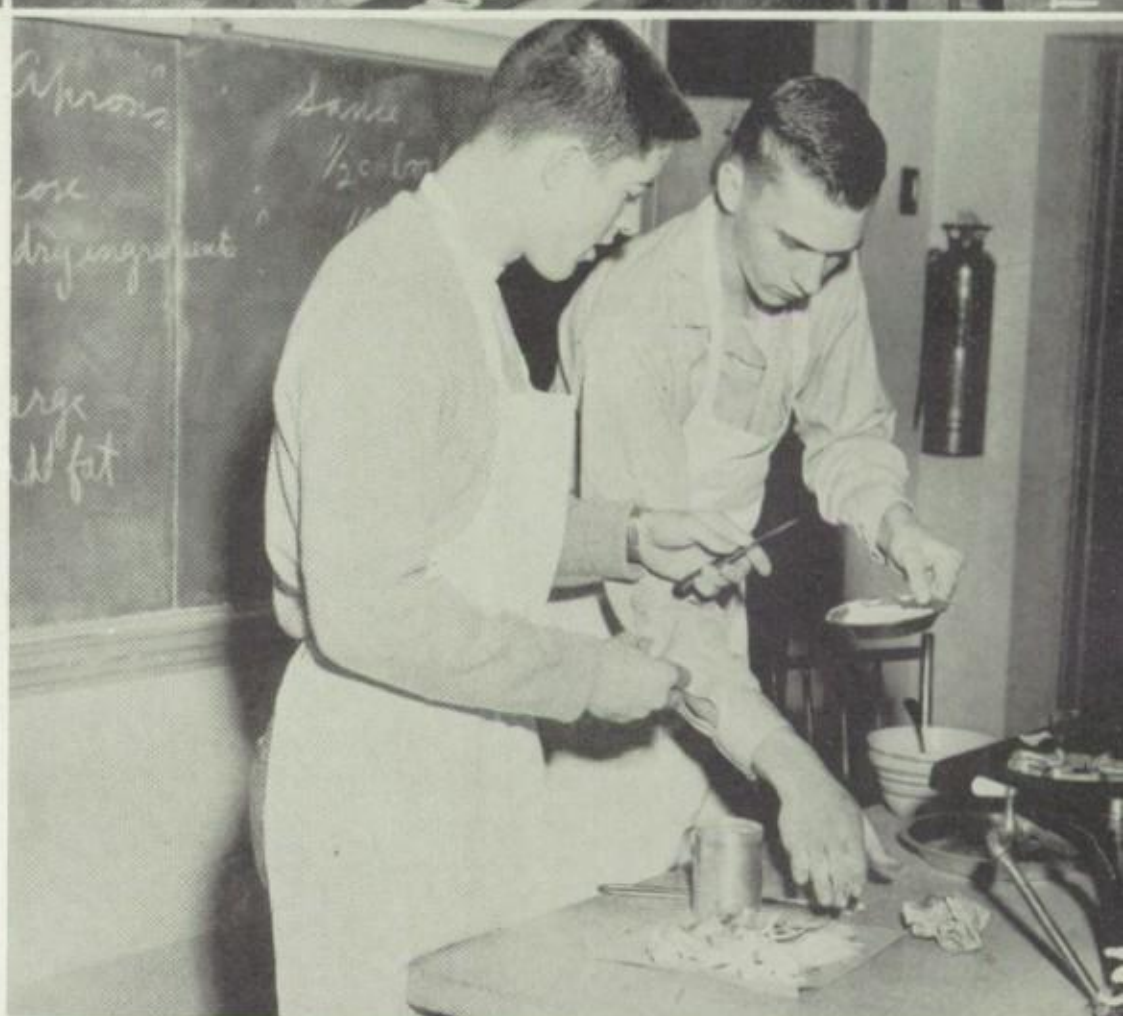

1. Studying the heavenly bodies, these star gazing astronomy pupils are Jack Heatherington, Linda Kirkham, and Leonard Adler.

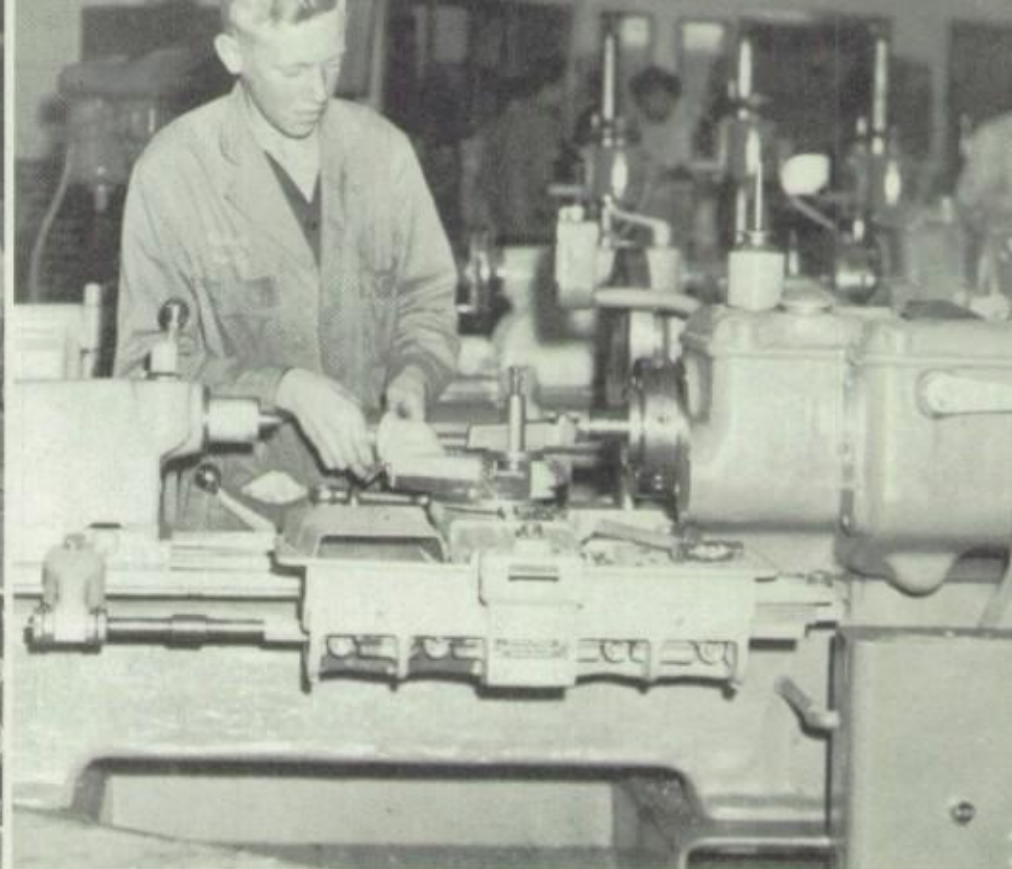

2. Art conscious East Highers are Beverly Van Dusen, Gayle Hess, Baird Purviance, and Audrey Bedient.

3. Decked out in aprons Bill Heaston and Garry Mann are learning how to be successful bachelors in boys' cooking class.

4. Connie Bartles and Dean Athens are proving how well they know their Geometry theories.

5. Pat Bailey, retail selling student, displays a polk-a-dot blouse for a prospective customer in a downtown dress shop where she works afternoons.

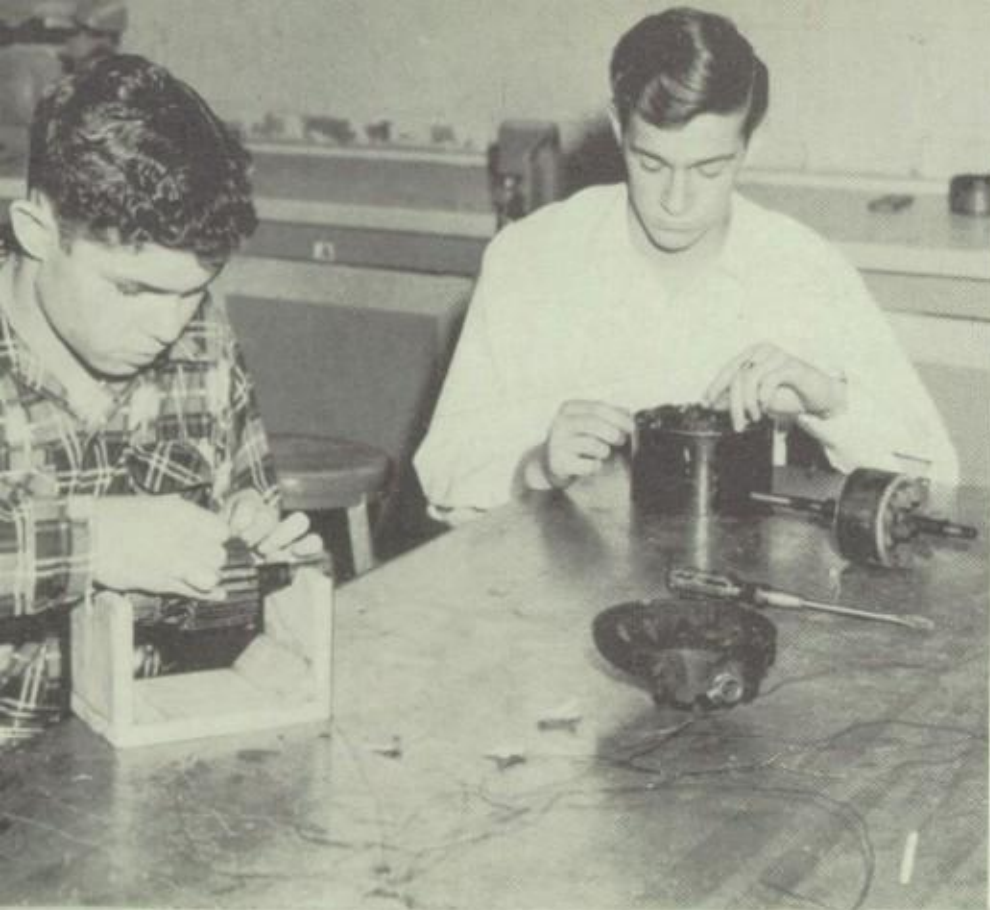

We Learn

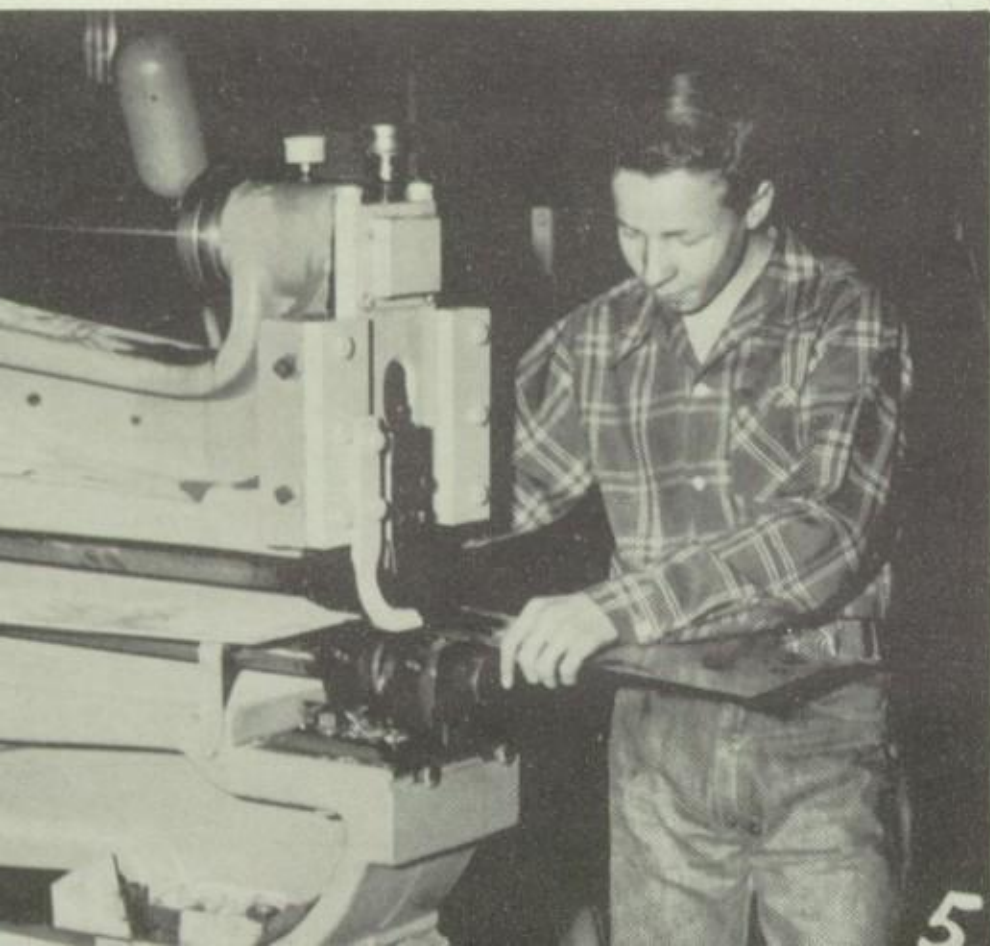

1. Investigating the mysteries of a Ford motor are Robert Richie and Russell Nagel.
2. Robert Bontz learns to operate a steel lathe.
3. Spencer Leader and Jerry Byrne are introduced to the art of mechanical drawing.
4. Vaughn Guthrie operates a table saw in the wood-working department.
5. Interested in the trade of printing are Sidney Cribbs, Lee Kelley, Myran Parisha, and Dale McLoud.

Our Classes

1. Gary Basset and Henry Hill explore the mysteries of an electric motor in the electricity class.
2. Risking their lives these drivers training students are Ella Moutray, Leon Lewallen, and Beverly Webb. The brave instructor is Mr. L. V. Logan.
3. Goggle-eyed Bob Underwood connects two pipes as a project in his welding class.
4. Radio students John Dickinson, Gene Downing, Lawrence Caw, and George Stevens prove good at radio repairing.
5. Jimmy Karr is making irregular cuts in metal with a nibbler in the sheet metal class.

School Life

1. Darlene Haugh and Jona Palmer are proving their ability as seamstresses in Clothing class.
2. Coach Sumner Roberts is trying hard to drill first aid into these diligent sophomores.
3. "Si Si Senioritas," is the remark of Bob Dedrick to Lillian Hollins and Carol Van Warmer in Spanish class.
4. "Ouch," exclaims Jim Graves as Miss Esther Treadway, the school nurse, bandages his injured finger.
5. Keeping the cafeteria running smoothly are Jimmy Patent, Larry Nighswonger, and Grover Shelby.

ast Activities

Camera Club's float took first place in originality in the annual North-East parade.

The traditional North-East day parade preceeded the big football game. Colorful floats, marching bands, decorated cars, and prancing horses highlighted the event. This, however, marked the end of the annual North-East classic because of the entrance of West High School into the athletic picture next year.

The Prom Was Tops

EAST JUNIORS AND SENIORS enjoyed the "Crystal Ball" at the Hotel Broadview on February 7th. At this time Carol Miller and Bob Elliot were crowned queen and king by Jan Skinner, senior class president.

IN MEMORIAM

She passed away, like morning dew,
Before the sun was high;
So brief her time, she scarcely knew
The meaning of a sigh.

As round the rose its soft perfume,
Sweet love around her floated;
Admired she grew--while mortal doom
Crept on, unfeared, unnoted.

Love was her guardian Angel here,
But love to death resigned her;
Tho' love was kind, why should we fear,
But holy death is kinder.

Hartley Coleridge
